

SILK STOCKING ROAD WALK

(WEST WASHINGTON STREET in Shell Rock)

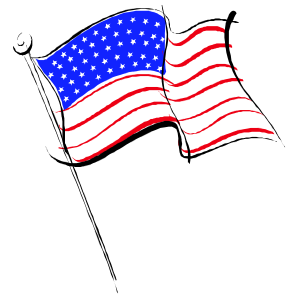

July 4, 2007

2 to 5 p.m.

Why was West Washington nicknamed 'Silk Stocking Road?'

Come for a self-guided walking tour of the street to get the answer to the question!

The Shell Rock Community Historical Society will provide free brochures giving the history of the street and the houses located there.

Pals Old Mill at 103 N. Cherry will be guiding tours of the Old Mill also.

Activities are fund-raising for Shell Rock Community Historical Society.
Free will donation appreciated.

QUESTIONS: Call Linda at 319-885-6687