

SHELL ROCK, IOWA September 2023

The Shell Rock Senior Living Auxiliary is having a “name your price” garage sale in the chapel at the Meadows on Saturday, September 30th, from 9:00—2:00. The address is 528 N Kelly Street, Shell Rock. All proceeds will go to the Senior Living Auxiliary to help pay for a gazebo. If you have garage sale items to donate (no clothes, please) you may drop them off at the Meadow’s office by September 27th. Thank you! -Anne Buerschel

The Shell Rock Historical Museum, located at 127 E. Adair St. in Shell Rock, will be open Saturday, September 16, from noon to 3 pm. Everyone is welcome and there is no admission charge. This is your last chance to register for two Shell Rock items to be given away. The first is a signed copy of Lost Butler County Towns. This book examines 65 named locations in Butler County that many people have never heard about, including Frog Flats, Low Town, and Shell Rock Station. Did you know that SR's first name was Carpenter's Grove? The other item is a framed, colored photo of the SR River and dam. Drawing will be held at the Historical Society's Annual Meeting on Oct. 17, which is open to everyone. You can not register that night.

There are several new exhibits to see. There are old annuals to look over, and there are a few of certain years for sale. Bring your children or grandchildren and show them how SR used to look. There are still a few books on SR history for sale, as well as postcards, photographs, and 150th anniversary items.

The subject to be discussed at the Annual Meeting will be SR's churches, including the rural churches that have closed. Barbara Dilly is in charge of this and you can contact her to share your memories or participate in the discussion. The Annual Meeting is held at the Boyd Building at 7 pm on Oct. 17 and everyone is welcome.

All Wednesday, Thursday & Friday garbage routes will run on regular schedule the week of Labor Day.
